

Attracting Top Advisors with Top Tools

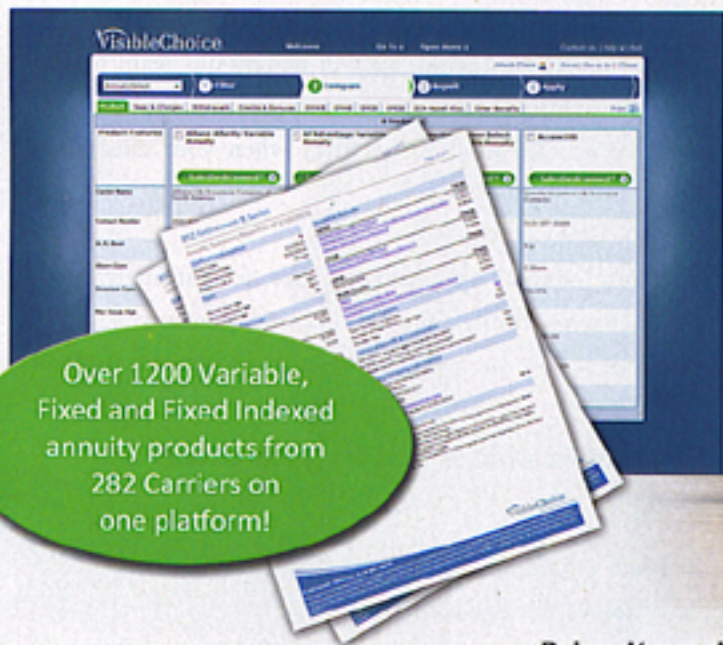

"Kovack Securities found a true partner in Insurance Technologies and their VisibleChoice solution. We believe it will make a tangible difference to a client's understanding of the details of annuity products they own or may own." — Brian Kovack, President of Kovack Securities.

"The Independent Broker/Dealer model attracts those Registered Representatives who are most successful and have a real defined vision of success for their clients and for their practices. The goal of the relationship between Kovack Securities and Insurance Technologies is to provide Registered Representatives with powerful technology solutions for their clients' needs."

— Pete Pecci, National Sales Director of Kovack Securities.
